

MYP5 students received their parents this week at the personal project exhibition. The students excelled in presenting their ideas that won the admiration of their parents and teachers. We are waiting for the students to obtain high grades from the IB.

